Work Experience

Product design intern | Microsoft

Jun 2018 - Aug 2018

Envisioned and designed a new Cortana skill with the team for its 145 million users, working closely with program managers, and software developers. I conducted user research to define requirements and created prototypes that went several iterations before achieving final goals.

UX Designer | Indiana University

Mar 2018 - Present

Actively involved in the research and design phase of the new technology, Power to Patient, team led by Richard J. Holden, intended to empower older adults with chronic heart failure by providing them with their heart health data. I participated in User research and worked on designing and testing new prototypes with frequent collaboration with researchers at Parkview Health and Health Innovation Lab at IUPUI.

UX Designer | Indiana University

Aug 2017 - Present

Created designs for an early stage concept related to persistent augmented reality under the supervision of Co-Director Zebulun M. Wood. I led the design production of mobile app and a desktop app creating motion designs, illustrations, and vision video.

UX Designer | Awign

Sep 2014 - Dec 2016

Prototyped a SaaS application to simplify the school data and better represent the performance statistics of the students. I conducted user interviews along with the team of developers to streamline the complex school data addressing user problems.
